Letter from the Board President

2013 was one of consolidation and growth for the Fort Collins Museum of Art. The year began with the exhibition Tools in Motion an extraordinary selection of artworks celebrating repetition and motion in common everyday tools and hardware. This exhibition was made possible through the generous sponsorship of Mawson Lumber and Hardware and I would like to thank Mawson owner Tom Moore for his ongoing generosity and support of the museum and its programs. The lighthearted spirit of Tools in Motion was followed by the powerful expressionism found in the paintings and sculptures of Russian artist Ernst Neizvestny. For this exhibition, as well as the James Jensen exhibition, the museum was once again able to work with Denver art collector and a member of FCMOA's Founder's Society, Dr. Wayne F. Yakes. Dr Yakes has been a strong partner with the museum in creating exhibitions from his outstanding art collection. He made possible past exhibitions such as Marc Chagall and the Bible and Liao Yibai: Supersized Fakes and Coldwar Artifacts and we were very lucky to have works from his collection at the museum in 2013.

Back to great acclaim and renewed success in 2013 was our annual Masks fundraiser. In one of the most successful Masks year ever, Myra Powers and De Dahlgren led a committee of dedicated volunteers and staff and raised almost $89,000 (that is the net number!) towards the museum's exhibitions and operations. Myra and De introduced a number of new, innovative initiatives to Masks, including the development of the Masks Honorary Chair program. The Masks Honorary Chair is intended to honor leaders in the community who have been vital to the museum's growth and success and in 2013, Gary Hixon was honored as our first annual Masks Honorary Chair. Funds raised through Honorary Chair sponsorships go towards a project chosen by the Chair. Gary Hixon, whose passion is support for local and regional artists, chose to have an exhibition featuring regional artists. The Northern Colorado Invitational was a great success for the museum and demonstrated the superb talent of Northern Colorado artists. We are looking forward in 2014 to working with the 2014 Masks Honorary Chair, Paula Edwards.

I hope you will continue to join FCMOA as we work to serve the community with exhibitions and educational programs that enrich and enhance life in Northern Colorado.
