

ANNUAL REPORT 2025

MUSEUM OF ART | FORT COLLINS

A WORD FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends of MoA,

As we look back at 2025, the Museum of Art Fort Collins further strengthened its role as a community collaborator and central point of connection for arts and culture in Northern Colorado.

Art has always been more than what hangs on a museum wall. It is a catalyst for conversation, a source of inspiration, and a powerful way to strengthen the connections that bring a community together. This year, the Museum of Art Fort Collins continued to embrace that belief by creating meaningful experiences that welcomed new audiences, celebrated artists, created collaboration and deepened our impact throughout Northern Colorado.

As you will see throughout this report, our exhibitions, educational programs, public events, and community partnerships reflect a shared commitment to making art accessible, relevant, and inspiring for everyone. From emerging local artists to regional and nationally recognized artists and exhibitions, every program was designed to encourage curiosity, creativity, and dialogue.

Our success is made possible by an extraordinary community of members, donors, volunteers, artists, educators, business partners, and visitors. Your generosity and enthusiasm allow us to fulfill our mission of boldly exploring contemporary society through art while connecting art, artists, and community. Together, we continue to expand opportunities for learning, cultural engagement, and creative expression.

This past year also marked important progress toward our long-term vision. We strengthened partnerships, expanded access through our MoA for All initiatives, and continued planning for improvements that will ensure our historic museum remains a vibrant cultural destination for generations to come. As we look ahead, we remain committed to innovation, inclusivity, and creating experiences that inspire meaningful conversations and lasting connections.

Some highlights from 2025:

- Saying goodbye to Co-Executive Director Elizabeth Martin as she moved to the midwest and retirement
- Creating the new Peter D. Springberg, MD Vault Gallery in partnership with CSU and the Dinghy Rig collaborative group (CSU Art Professors Marius Lehene and Aitor Lajarin-Encina)
- Staffing changes: we welcomed Development Manager Kim Graves and Exhibitions and Facility Manager Stan Scott while saying a fond farewell to Director of Exhibitions and Facility, Cheryl Rogers, who had been with the museum for 11 years!
- Helping to form the Creative Coalition Group made up of arts nonprofit leaders to advocate for a stronger arts presence in Northern Colorado and the Front Range.
- Creating a new event: the annual Art Show and Sale to help connect artists and collectors as a fundraiser for MoA.

Thank you for believing in the transformative power of art. Your support allows us to dream bigger, serve more people, and continue building a museum that reflects the creativity, diversity, and spirit of our region. We are honored to share this journey with you and look forward to another year of discovery, collaboration, and inspiration.

With gratitude,

LISA HATCHADOORIAN

MISSION

To boldly explore contemporary society through art: enlightening, educating, and providing arts leadership for our region. We connect art, artists and community.

VISSION

To provide the region with a quality art museum and art experiences.

- We will do this by sparking thought and conversations with community members, museum members, patrons, artists and businesses throughout the region to understand their interests, expanding beyond the walls of the building.
- We will create exhibitions and programs that inspire, teach and speak to a variety of community interests.
- We will serve in an arts leadership role that connects art, artists and community through shared experiences.
- We will stand resilient in the face of financial needs (issues) by creating exhibitions and programs that create a committed audience, bringing increased revenue, donations, awards and recognition throughout the Mountain West region.
- We will be successful by staying focused on our guiding principles: connected, relevant and visionary.
- We will create a facility that is a recognizable and desired destination.

VALUES

- Connection – MoA strives to be engaged with the community, both artists and those who consume art. To provide leadership and connection between all forms of art in the community.
- Relevance – Relevancy is a shifting goal that MoA strives to understand through art that is inspirational, inclusive, accessible, informative, and thought-provoking. Connecting people and ideas.
- Visionary – By focusing on a bold vision for exhibitions, programs, and the facility that houses them, as well as going beyond the walls of the museum, MoA will focus on creative and innovative solutions to provide inspirational service.
